

Trusted home security and high-grade protection

Protection against cylinder attack

Secure, anti-pick design with 15 kN pulling resistance; 5 minutes' drilling resistance; and bumping resistance (for keyed alike & keyed to differ). Optional anti-snap protection ensures the cylinder breaks securely if attacked. It keeps the core protected, so you can unlock by key without waiting for a locksmith.

Precision engineered for durability

Durable design with 96-hour corrosion resistance and tested for 100,000 lock/unlock cycles.

Certified security

EN 1303:2015 Euro profile cylinders tested to 1 6 - B - C 5 D; including SKG certification (only for non anti-snap) plus rigorous in-house testing at ASSA ABLOY labs.

You no longer waste time looking for the right key. With the CY100, you can open every domestic door — and more — with the same key.

And because the CY100 key is robust, secure (patent-protected until 2036) and reversible, it turns in the lock first time, every time.
